

Waste Management

Infectious Waste

Non- Infectious Waste

Sharp Waste

- Waste must be segregated at the point of its generation into color coded covered receptacles.
- Transport of waste to waste storage area must be through separate corridors.
- Waste storage area must be separate from the hospital building. Infectious waste must be incinerated or disinfected before disposal.